

"I wanted to say thank you for your hard work with the house, and congrats on closing. I don't know what we would've done without your work. I hope the new owners enjoy their home, and I hope your business continues to thrive"

-Reginald Kapteyn May 2015

"I want to thank you for all of the hard work you have put in to this for us. You have represented us magnificently and I can't tell you how happy and proud I am that you are our Realtor! All of your interactions have been professional... You have been a wonderful friend to us and it has transposed to our professional relationship as well"

-Andrew Dempsey July 2015

The purchase or sale of a home is an important financial decision. When choosing a Realtor's representation, it is essential to consider their services offered, client feedback as well as their commitment to the business and industry.

Emily Mueller has two business degrees from the University of Arizona in Marketing and Entrepreneurship. She is a Real Estate Broker which is the highest level of education for a real estate licensee. She has sold hundreds of homes across the Greater Cincinnati area for the last nine years. She worked for RE/MAX as a recruiter, trainer, and manager before moving on to open local Keller Williams office of which she is still affiliated. She values her strong personal relationships with her fellow Cincinnati real estate agents. More recently, she started her own Company, TREA in 2012. Emily's clients value her education, knowledge, and professional networking skills which bring them optimal transactions.

TREA'S clients receive a book of services including, but not limited to: knowledgeable pricing strategy, strong negotiating expertise, a staging consultation, professional photographs, and maximum internet exposure. Since the majority of buyers see homes online first and foremost, it is essential to have the best photos of the house on every website. TREA listings are featured on every real estate website as well as all syndicated websites.

The success of Emily's business is directly linked to her friends and family and their unwavering support and steady stream of referrals. These continued referrals are a testament to the high level of service she provides.

Please call Emily to discuss any of your real estate needs. She can assist you in buying selling, investing, or renting. She has the tools to make your goals a reality. Her services do not stop at the closing table; she is always available to give advice or answer any questions.

"I want to take a moment to thank you for having faith in me through the years. This gratitude cannot be understated; your referrals are what keeps my business alive and I truly could not do it without all of you."
